MAN TO BEAT JEFFRIES LIVES DOWN IN MAINE

HARRY MURCH WHOM NEW YORK SPORTSMEN HAVE DISCOVERED—NEEDS ONLY THE TRAINING.

New York, June 18.—"Billy" Elmer is now training in his gymnasium, in West Forty-second street, a young giant—a man he is confident will be able to easily fill Jeffries' shoes. The find is Harry Murch, from the mountains of Maine, who weighs 285 pounds and is twenty-five years old, six feet three and one-half inches in height, and has an eighty-inch reach.

Elmer knows a fighter, and he said yesterday he would bet all he had that Murch could defeat any one in the world barring the retired Jeffries. When asked how he happened to run across Murch, Elmer said: "Allen Lowe, for years a sporting authority in New England, and I went to a lake in Maine to catch a few salmon. Rose Snow had told us of a young fellow down there who was the biggest, fastest and fiercest young American he had ever seen."

"I thought Snow was talking through his hat, so I will not blame you if you have the same idea about what I tell you."

"When we arrived at Snow's camp we found all the members of the party swimming. I was particularly interested in one big fellow. Snow is a husky well-set-up athletic young man, weighing about 180. This big fellow was picking him up and playfully throwing him out in the water."

Murch will be 25 years old this fall. His father is a lumber agent and was born beside the lake in which I saw Harry. The father is close to sixty years old, but is active and vigorous. The mother comes from a family of big people who range from 6 feet to 6 feet 6 inches and not one weighed less than 215 pounds at maturity.

His chest measurement is 44 1/2 inches normally and he has great expansion. I have seen him snap two strands of hay wire with one jerk of his arms. His hands are like boiler plates, and though I have seen many fighters, fencers and oarsmen with magnificent forearms, I never saw a pair of such powerful arms in my life.

"Unlike most heavy muscled men he is not a bit muscle bound. He can reach ten inches below his toes and meet his palms behind his back. He can reach a trifle over eighty inches, or nearly seven inches more than his height. "Bob" Fitzsimmons had a longer reach than Jeffries, and Murch has Robert outreached many inches."

WANTS BUCKLAND

AS WITNESS

County Attorney Willard of Kauai

has sent a subpoena for Chief Clerk

C. R. Buckland of the Secretary's office to appear as a witness in the trial of Kanealii tomorrow. The defendant was one of the candidates in the recent election and is alleged to have forged the names of some of the endorsees of his nomination. He was indicted by the Grand Jury.

As Secretary Atkinson is at present

filling the Governor's chair, Buckland

is practically Acting Secretary, and it is virtually impossible for him to go to Kauai on account of the large amount of work before him. A request has been sent to Willard by wireless asking that the case be continued for a week.

HAWAII SHERIFFS ARE

BUMPING DIFFICULTIES

There's a pretty political mix-up in

Kau, Hawaii. Deputy Sheriff Kekaula

and the Supervisors are at odds. Kekaula wants the entire say in shaping the police force and the Supervisors do not agree with his plans, having idea of their own as to the make-up of the department.

Things are not altogether serene in North Kona. There Deputy Sheriff J.

W. Kekaula has not yet been able to furnish the bonds required by the County.
